Indian Translators Association (ITAINDIA) is a non-profit making body registered under societies registration act XXI, 1860 of India and recognized by world apex body of translators International Federation of Translators \(Fédération Internationale Des Traducteurs \(FIT\)\) with its headquarters in Paris, France.

Indian Translators Association (ITAINDIA) seeks to unite the widespread translators, interpreters, language trainers and academics of India under a common platform. It works for the betterment of the industry by providing adequate guidance and orientation to its members so that they meet the professional standards of the industry.

Within a short span of its inception, ITAINDIA gained confidence of quite a large number of translators and interpreters from all over India and that it continues to focus on the up-gradation of knowledge and capabilities of its members by organizing workshops, creating quality awareness and following the code of professional conduct. Simultaneously, it constantly acts as an interface between the government of India and the affiliates of the Translation Industry of India.

Since its inception in 2006, ITAINDIA has developed relations with leading translator associations at regional, national and international levels by developing strategic partnerships and collaborations. It is actively involved in exchange of information as well as develop relations that help in up-gradation of translation as well as technological skills of its members and converge on areas of mutual interests.

Although ITAINDIA has plans to focus more on regional and national level activities, it also plans to take the Indian Translation Industry to the world forums by getting associated with global translation organizations, including International Federation of Translators (FIT). Many positive steps have already been initiated in this direction.

It also intends to take the Indian Translation Industry to the world forums through International Federation of Translators (FIT) to which ITAINDIA is a member. In addition, it seeks to get recognition from UNESCO and various international bodies and develop strong network of mutual cooperation. Many positive steps have already been initiated in this direction and one can expect the outcome of these endeavors fructify in

For Service Providers

As a Translator/Interpreter or representative of my company, as bridge for ideas from one language to another and one culture to another, I commit myself to the highest standards of performance, ethical behavior, and business practices.

- A. I will endeavor to translate or interpret the original message faithfully, to satisfy the needs of the end user(s). I acknowledge that this level of excellence requires:
 - 1 Mastery of the target language equivalent to that of an educated native speaker,
 - 2 Up-to-date knowledge of the subject material and its terminology in both languages,
 - 3 Access to information resources and reference materials, and knowledge of the tools of my profession,
 - 4 Continuing efforts to improve, broaden, and deepen my skills and knowledge.
- B. I will be truthful about my qualifications and will not accept any assignment/s for which I am not fully equipped to handle.
- C. I will safeguard the interests of my clients as my own and divulge no confidential information.
- D. I will notify my clients of any unresolved difficulties. If we cannot resolve a dispute, we will seek arbitration.
- E. I will use a client as a reference only if I am prepared to name a person to attest to the quality of my work.
- F. I will respect and refrain from interfering with or supplanting any business relationship between my client and my client's client.

For Employer or Contractor

As an employer or contractor of translators and/or interpreters, I will adhere to the following practices with translators and interpreters:

- A. I will put my contractual relationship with translators and interpreters in writing and state my expectations prior to work.
- B. I will adhere to the agreed terms, payment schedules, and agreed charges, and will not capriciously change job descriptions after work has begun.
- C. I will deal directly with the translator or interpreter about any dispute. If we cannot resolve a dispute, we will seek arbitration.
- D. I will not require translators or interpreters to do unpaid work for the prospect of a paid assignment. I will not use translators' or interpreters' credentials in bidding or promoting my business without their consent or without the bona fide intention to use their services.
- F. For translations for publication or performance over which I have direct control, I will give the translators the recognition traditionally given to the authors.
